PSALM I. Beatus vir, qui non abiit.

BLESSED is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners: and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exercise himself day and night. 3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season. 4. His leaf also shall not wither: and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper. 5. As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth. 6. Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7. But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

PSALM 2. Quare fremuerunt gentes?

WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing? 2. The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed. 3. Let us break
